March 2022 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children's Safety Advocates:

In February 2022, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued fourteen recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children's product safety recalls for the past month. If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#22-066) Amazon, of Seattle, Wash., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 3,800 children's robes. This recall involves BAOPTAIL-branded children's 100% micro polyester (fleece) robes. They were sold in various colors, patterns, and in sizes 2T through 14 Years. The long-sleeved, hooded robes have two front pockets and a sewn-in, side-seam matching belt. "Made in China," the size, the fiber content and the washing instructions are printed on a sewn-in, side-seam label.

Problem: The children's robes fail to meet the federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled robes away from children and stop using them. Consumers who purchased the robes from Amazon will be contacted through Amazon's messaging platform and provided prepaid mailers to return the robes for a full refund. Consumers can also contact BAOPTAIL to request a postage prepaid mailer to return the robes for a full refund. Consumers can contact BAOPTAIL via email at 244882378@qq.com.

Release Number: (#22-067) Games Workshop Retail Inc., of Memphis, Tenn., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 2,600 KOYO Bounca the Squig limited edition plush toys. This recall involves KOYO Bounca the Squig Limited Edition Plush toys. The orange plush toy monster has gray antlers, two legs, no arms, a wide-open mouth with big teeth, and green and red pom-poms. The words "KOYO" and "Manufactured by GA Global Limited T/A The Koyo Store" are printed on a fabric sewn in label on the bottom of the toy.

Problem: The pom-poms can detach from the toy, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled plush toy away from young children and return the toy to any Games Workshop or Warhammer store for a full refund, or destroy the product by cutting off the tail with scissors and provide photographic proof of destruction by emailing the photo to custserv@gwplc.com or uploading photo using the form at <https://www.games-workshop.com/recall> for a full refund. Consumers can also contact Games Workshop toll-free at 877-426-0130 from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, email at custserv@gwplc.com or online at games-workshop.com/recall or at www.games-workshop.com and click on "Recalls" at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#22-069) D & D Technologies (USA) Inc., of Huntington Beach, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,500 SureClose® READYFIT 180° Hinge-Closer Sets. This recall involves OL.MI-branded SureClose READYFIT 180 hinge-closer sets with model numbers 74108333T and 74108335T. The hydraulic hardware is intended for mounting on gates. They were sold with mounting screws and in sets of two hinge-closers per kit with dimples on the end. The recalled hinge-closer sets were manufactured between October 2018 and September 2019. OL.MI, and the date code in MM/YY format are on the end of the body of the hinge-closer and visible when the hinge-closer is in the open position.

Problem: The hinge-closers can malfunction and not fully self-close gates when installed. This can lead to unintended access to pools and other areas, posing injury and drowning hazards to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the hinge-closers and secure access to areas where gates with the hinge-closers are used until the recalled hinge-closers have been replaced. Contact D&D Technologies to receive either a full refund or to schedule hinge-closer replacement at no cost. Consumers will also receive instructions on how to return recalled hinges to D&D Technologies via mail free of charge. Consumers can all contact D&D Technologies at 800-716-0888 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, email at info@ddtechusa.com, or online at <https://us.ddtech.com/pages/safety-notification> or <https://us.ddtech.com/> and click on the Resources tab and then on Safety Notifications for more information.

Release Number: (#22-719) BFG North Carolina, of High Point, North Carolina, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,380 River Street five-drawer chests. The recalled dressers are unstable if not anchored to the wall, posing tip-over and entrapment hazards that may result in death or serious injuries to children. The dressers do not comply with the performance requirements of the U.S. voluntary industry standard (ASTM 2057-19).

Problem: The recalled dressers are unstable if not anchored to the wall, posing tip-over and entrapment hazards that may result in death or serious injuries to children. The dressers do not comply with the performance requirements of the U.S. voluntary industry standard (ASTM 2057-19).

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled chests and contact Rooms to Go for a free in-home repair by trained technicians, free replacement, or a full refund of the purchase price in the form of a Rooms to Go store credit, including free pick-up of the chest. Rooms to Go is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can also contact Rooms to Go toll-free at 855-688-0919 Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. ET, email at productcare@roomstogo.com, or online at www.riverstreetrecall.com or www.brazilfurnituregro.com and click on Recalls on the top of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#22-071) AllMeInGeld, of Guangdong Shenzhen, China, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 3,900 children's nightgowns. This recall involves AllMeInGeld children's nightgowns. The nightgowns were available in three styles: long-sleeved, short-sleeved and long-sleeved with a matching doll nightgown. The nightgowns are made of 100% cotton and were sold in children's sizes 3T through 9. The nightgowns were manufactured in pink stripes with three ribbons at the neck; pink with flower print and pink with unicorn print; pink with lace décor; green, red and yellow striped nightgowns with a cherry embroidered on the left chest and blue and pink with a cherries print. The sewn-in label has Chinese lettering.

Problem: The children's nightgowns fail to meet federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled nightgowns away from children and stop using them. Consumers who purchased the garments from Amazon.com will be contacted through Amazon's messaging platform and provided prepaid mailers to return the products for a full refund. Consumers can also contact AllMeInGeld to request a postage prepaid mailer to return the products for a full refund. Consumers can also contact AllMeInGeld email at yong-yi.US@outlook.com.

Release Number: (#22-074) Stance Inc., of San Clemente, California, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 10,800 kids Reiny Szn mid-cushion crew socks. This recall involves the Stance Kids Reiny Szn Mid-Cushion Crew Sock with UPC M: 19107481113 and UPC L: 190107481120. The UPC codes can be found on the back of the hangtag on the sock. The socks were sold in children's sizes medium and large. These combed cotton blend socks are brown with a black heel and toe, have a reindeer image on the socks with gold jingling bells attached around the ankle of the socks.

Problem: The bells attached to the socks can detach, posing aspiration and choking hazards to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using and return the recalled socks to a Stance store or contact Stance at info@stance.com to receive instructions for a pre-paid shipping label to return the recalled socks. Upon return of the recalled socks, consumers will receive a refund in the form of a credit of up to $20 to use on their next purchase on Stance.com or at a Stance retail store. This credit is not transferrable, is not redeemable for cash and is a one-time usage code. Consumers can also contact Stance toll-free at 888-391-9020 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, email at info@stance.com, or online at www.stance.com/support/recall or www.stance.com and click on Product Recall at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#22-073) Stack Em' Up Books Inc., of Langhorne, Pa., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 200 Adam the Apple™ Children's Stackable Toys. This recall involves Adam the Apple children's stackable toys. The toys have 15 wooden pieces with a story written on each piece. They measure about 6 inches tall and 6.5 inches wide when stacked and look like a happy-faced red apple with a leaf atop. The phrases Adam the Apple, By Chris Bayon and Illustrated by Patrick Carlson are written on the leaf.

Problem: Surface paint on the wooden toys contains levels of lead that exceed the federal lead paint ban. Lead is toxic if ingested by young children and can cause adverse health effects.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled toys away from children and contact Stack Em' Up Books to receive a pre-paid shipping label to return the recalled product, regardless of whether they purchased the product or received it as a free giveaway. Consumers that purchased the product at www.stackemupbooks.com or the Philadelphia Gift Show will receive a full refund once they return the product. Consumers can also contact Stack Em' Up Books collect at 267-987-3328 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET, email at contact@stackemupbooks.com, or online at www.stackemupbooks.com/pages/cpsc-voluntary-recall-information or stackemupbooks.com and click on the CPSC Voluntary Recall 2021-2022 link at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#22-724) Zeno Inc., of Weymouth, Mass., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,355 infant walkers. This recall involves Zeno collapsible infant walkers with adjustable height settings. The walkers have a black, teal, pink or gray frame; a gray or black seat and a white, teal or pink tray. Some styles have toy attachments and a push handle and "Babywalker" stitched on the seat back.

Problem: The infant walkers fail to meet the federal safety standard. They can fit through a standard doorway and are not designed to stop at the edge of a step as required by the federal safety standard. The walkers also have leg openings that allow the child to slip down until the child's head can become entrapped at the neck. Babies using these walkers can be seriously injured or killed.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled infant walkers and contact Zeno via e-mail to receive a shipping label to return the infant walker free of charge. Upon receipt of the infant walker, consumers will be issued a full refund of the purchase price. Zeno is notifying all known purchasers directly. Consumers can also contact Zeno Inc. by e-mail at cs@zeno999.com or sally@zeno999.com

Release Number: (#22-730) Lovevery Inc., of Boise, Idaho, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 169,000 steel drinking cups with handle. This recall involves a stainless-steel drinking cup included in Lovevery's Inspector Play Kits for children aged seven to eight months. The recalled cups have a handle and measure 2.25 inches tall. Only cups with a handle are included in this recall.

Problem: The handle can detach from the steel cup, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled drinking cups away from children, stop using them, and contact Lovevery for a free replacement cup. Consumers will receive a free replacement cup after registering on the firm's website, uploading a photo of their defaced cup with "X Recalled X" written inside of the cup with a permanent marker and affirming to Lovevery that the cup will be recycled according to local guidelines or disposed of in the trash. Lovevery is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can also contact Lovevery online at www.recallrtr.com/drinkingcup or www.lovevery.com/pages/product-recalls, call toll-free at 877-367-3175 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, email at drinkingcup@lovevery.com, and at www.lovevery.com and click on Product Recalls for more information.

Release Number: (#22-087) Kelly Wynne LLC, of Austin, Texas, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,050 Mamma & Me MINI children’s handbags. This recall involves the Mama & Me MINI children’s leather handbags. The recalled handbags measure about 6.5 inches high, 9.5 inches wide and 3.25 inches deep and were sold in three different colors or color combinations: coral, coral/purple and taupe. The handbags have a top zipper, an interior slip pocket and a detachable, 21 inch-long, gold and leather strap that can be shortened or removed. The Kelly Wynne logo is printed on a golden sewn-in label located on the inside of the handbag. The following SKU and UPC numbers combinations can be found on the order invoice: SKU MINI505 and UPC 850023783271; SKU MINI875 and UPC 850023783288; and SKU MINI500 and UPC 850023783288.

Problem: The metal zipper slider, zipper O-ring, d-ring, rivet and stud of the children’s handbags contain levels of lead that exceed the federal lead content ban. Lead is toxic if ingested by young children and can cause adverse health issues.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled handbags away from children and contact Kelly Wynne for a full refund if purchased at kellywynne.com or contact Nordstrom if purchased at Nordstrom.com. Kelly Wynne and Nordstrom are contacting all known purchasers directly, and will provide pre-paid shipping labels for consumers to return the recalled product for a full refund. Consumers can also contact Kelly Wynne LLC collect at 512-472-5762 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. CT Monday through Friday, email at recall@kellywynne.com, or online at <https://kellywynne.com/pages/consumerinformation> or kellywynne.com and click on Consumer Information at the bottom of the page for more information.
