

Surplus goods and government sales

Several government agencies have surplus and confiscated items available which may be purchased by private citizens. Many businesses contact consumers through the mail or classified ads claiming they can provide information on purchasing these goods. Don't pay for information that is available free-of-charge. For information on surplus goods and government sales, contact these agencies:

Vehicles

Seized Vehicles
U.S. Customs Service
(seized property)
410/962-4046

U.S. Marshal's Office
West District
608/264-5161
East District
414/297-3707

Government Surplus

General Services
Administration (GSA)
Vehicle Hotline
800/472-2886
website:
<http://www.greatlakes.gsa.gov/auction.htm>

To get on the GSA Auction mailing list, send stamped self-addressed envelope to:
GSA Auction Mailing List
230 S. Dearborn St. ms 34-7
Chicago, IL 60604

Real Estate

U.S. Marshal's Office
West District
608/264-5161
East District
414/297-3707

GSA Customer Service
Bureau
230 S. Dearborn St. Rm 2340A
Chicago IL 60604
1-800/472-1313

Dept. of Housing & Urban Development
310 W. Wisconsin Ave.
Ste 1380
Milwaukee, WI 53203-2289
414/297-3214 (general info)
414/297-3235 (single family homes)
website: <http://www.hud.gov>

Used Government Equipment & Military Sales

Department of Defense
800/468-8289

U.S. Marshal's Office
East District
414/297-3707
West District
608/264-5161

Other Property

GSA Customer Service
Bureau
816/823-3714

U.S. Customs Service (seized property)
410/962-4046

If you have specific questions,
write to:

Public Affairs/U.S.
Marshal's Service
600 Army Navy Drive
Arlington, VA 22202
312/353-0101 (auction hotline)

For more information or to file a complaint, contact the Bureau of Consumer Protection at:

(800) 422 7128

FAX: (608) 224-4939

TTY: (608) 224-5058

E-MAIL:

datcphotline@datcp.state.wi.us

WEBSITE:

<http://.state.wi.us/>