KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#15-725) Stokke LLC, of Stamford, C.T., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 400 Stokke Trailz strollers with the chassis and seat sold between November 2014 and December 2014. The strollers were sold in black, black mélange, beige mélange, deep blue, red and purple. The four-wheeled adjustable chassis is silver aluminum, and measures approximately 45 inches high by 32 inches long when fully extended. The strollers have adjustable angle handlebars, a storage bin above the wheelbase and a seat with an adjustable cover. The Stokke logo is printed on the front of the seat and the "Trailz" model name is printed on a tracking label affixed to the front of the wheelbase assembly.

Problem: The stroller handle can break while in use, posing a fall hazard to the infant.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the stroller and contact Stokke to schedule a repair. You can contact Stokke LLC toll-free at (877) 978-6553 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday or online at www.stokke.com and click on "Important Safety Announcement" for more information.

Release Number: (#15-108) Smooth Industries, Oceanside, C.A., has announced the voluntary recall of about 7,600 children's one- and two-piece Smooth Industries pajama sets. The pajamas are made of 100% polyester and were sold in four styles: Ride Smooth, Honda, MX Superstars and Moto X. The racing-themed pajamas have large motocross-related graphics and were sold in red, white and black; orange, white and black; and red, blue and black. One-piece pajama sets were sold in sizes: 6 to 12 months, 12 to 18 months and 18 to 24 months. Two-piece sets were sold in sizes XS to Youth XL. "Smooth Ind." and "smoothindustries.com" is printed on the garment's neck label.

Problem: The pajamas fail to meet federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled pajamas away from children, stop using them and return them to Smooth Industries for credit towards another Smooth Industries product. You can contact Smooth Industries toll-free at (844) 216-2076 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Tuesday through Friday, or online at www.smoothindustries.com and click on the Product Recall link on the homepage.

Release Number: (#15-728) Cycle Gear Inc., of Benicia, C.A., announces the voluntary recalls about 155 plastic Wheelies semi-truck with six motorcycles toy and Wheelies push-along motorcycle toys. The semi-truck has a dual-level trailer that carries six motorcycles and comes in red and purple with multi-colored motorcycles. The truck with the trailer attached measures 18 inches long by 7 inches tall. The truck has the item number Item # TAG66767 and SKU# 752249 printed on the packaging. The Wheelies push-along motorcycle is red with a rider in black with silver accents. The product has item # TBG04323 and SKU# 752251 printed on the package.

Problem: The toys contain excessive levels of lead, which is a violation of the federal standard for lead content.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take away from children and stop using the recalled toys and contact Cycle Gear Inc. for a full refund. Cycle Gear Inc. is contacting consumers directly. You can contact Cycle Gear at (800) 292-5343 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday or online at www.cyclegear.com and click on "Recall Notices" at the bottom for more recall information.

Release Number: (#15-113) Goochie Goo Garbs LLC, of Scottsdale, A.Z., announces the voluntary recall of about 125 Sensory Grab Garb blanket is a 6-inch square of soft fabric with crinkle paper inside and ribbon tags in the middle of each of the four sides. One side of the blanket contains a white satin ribbon tag with the words "Goochie Goo Garbs" on it. The polka-dot ribbon tags are black, blue, green, pink or red ribbons with white polka-dots. The blankets come in a variety of child themed patterns including shapes, animals and superhero themes. Only the 6-inch square Sensory Grab Garb blankets with colored polka-dot ribbon tags attached to the side of the blanket are included in the recall.

Problem: Wire-edged ribbon used in the blanket's ribbon tags can become exposed, posing a laceration hazard to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using these Sensory Grab Garb blankets and return them to the store where purchased for a full refund or a replacement blanket. You can contact Goochie Goo Garbs collect at (480) 773-1808 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. MT Monday through Friday, email at customercare@goochiegoo.com or online at www.goochiegoo.com and click on "Recall Notice" tab for more information.

Release Number: (#15-114) Civia Cycles, of Bloomington, M.N., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,000 Civia aluminum fenders sold separately as aftermarket sets and all Civia Hyland bicycles sold with the fenders as original equipment. The recalled fenders are round, designed for use with 700c wheels and tires and have the Civia logo on the front and rear sides of each fender. Fender sets came in black, blue, green, olive, red and silver. Hyland bicycles came in blue, green, olive and red. The bikes have "Hyland" on the top tube, "Civia" on the down tube and the Civia logo on the seat tube.

Problem: The fender mounting bracket can break or bend, posing a fall hazard to the rider.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop riding bicycles with the recalled fenders and contact an authorized Civia Cycles dealer to receive a $60 credit. You can contact Civia Cycles toll-free at (877) 311-7686 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. CT Monday through Friday or online at www.civiacycles.com and click on Safety Recall for more information.

Release Number: (#15-118) Trek Bicycle Corporation, of Waterloo, W.I., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 900,000 in the U.S. and 98,000 in Canada models of Trek bicycles from model years 2000 through 2015 equipped with front disc brakes and a black or silver quick release lever on the front wheel hub that opens far enough to contact the disc brake (see Figures 1 and 2). Bicycles with front quick release levers that do not open a full 180 degrees from the closed position, are not included in this recall.

Problem: An open quick release lever on the bicycle's front wheel hub can come into contact with the front disc brake assembly, causing the front wheel to come to a sudden stop or separate from the bicycle, posing a risk of injury to the rider.

What to do: Consumers should stop using the bicycles immediately and contact an authorized Trek retailer for free installation of a new quick release on the front wheel. Trek will provide each owner who participates in the recall with a $20 coupon that is redeemable by December 31, 2015 toward any Bontrager merchandise. (The coupon has no cash value.)

Release Number: (#15-730) J. Crew Group Inc., of New York, N.Y., is announcing the voluntary recall of 20,000 (8,700 additional baby coveralls were recalled in May 2014) J. Crew baby coveralls in sizes newborn to 2T. The coveralls were sold in various colors and designs including prints and stripes. A care label sewn into the inside left seam of the garment lists the PO number, style number and "SU '14."

Problem: Snaps on the coveralls can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the coveralls and contact J. Crew for a full refund. Consumers who purchased the garments online will receive instructions for returning the coveralls, including a postage-paid shipping label. J.Crew is contacting consumers who bought the coveralls directly. You can contact J. Crew at (800) 261-7422 anytime daily, by email at 24-7@jcrew.com or online at www.jcrew.com/baby and click on "Important Notice" for more information.

Release Number: (#15-122) Roberta Roller Rabbit, of New York, N.Y., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 32,000 children's pajamas from Roberta Roller Rabbit by Roberta Freyman. The pajamas are 100% cotton, two-piece pajama sets sold in toddler size 1 through youth 12. The sets were sold in two styles; long-sleeve with pants or short-sleeve with shorts. Both styles were sold in eighteen prints in various colors; Babar, Bump, Christopher, Colada, Dino, Elephant, Goby, Hathi, Heart, Heebo, Moby, Monkey, Owl, Rain, Rico, Scotty, Teddy, and Ticochon. Roberta Roller Rabbit is identified on a yellow label sewn into the neck and waist of both the top and bottom. This recall includes all children's sleepwear garments with a sewn-in label at the neck. Garments that are screen printed at the neck are not affected.

Problem: The children's pajama sets fail to meet federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injury to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled pajamas away from children, stop using them and return them to Roberta Roller Rabbit for instructions on receiving a free replacement pajama set or a full refund. You can contact Roberta Roller Rabbit toll-free at (866) 227-6938 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday or online at
