August 2019 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children’s Safety Advocates:

In July 2019, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued a total of 18 recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children’s product safety recalls for the past month. If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

Release Number: (#19-159) Disney Merchandise Sourcing & Distribution, LLC, of Burbank, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 80,000 Forky 11" plush toys. This recall involves an 11" "Forky" plush toy from Disney Pixar's Toy Story 4. The toy has poseable arms, a base, rainbow screen art on top of foot and plastic rolling "googly" eyes. The eyes are comprised of three parts; a white plastic base, a clear plastic dome and a small black plastic disc within the dome, which represents the character's pupil. The tracking code information is included on the sewn in label attached to the base of the toy.

Problem: The "googly" plastic eyes on the toy can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled toy away from children and return it to any Disney Store retail location, Walt Disney World, or Disneyland Resort theme park retail store location for a full refund. Consumers can contact Disney toll-free at 866-537-7649 from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. CT Monday through Friday, Saturday 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Sunday 1:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. or for additional information email personal.shoppers@shopDisney.com.

Release Number: (#19-761) Levolor Inc., of Atlanta, Ga., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 30,000 Levolor two-corded customer cellular shades. This recall involves the Levolor Two-Corded Custom Cellular window shades. The shades were sold in the following styles:

- Bottom up single cell products (60 inches or less in width)
- Bottom up double cell products (44 inches or less in width)
- Top-Down/Bottom-Up or Day/Night corded products (42 inches or less in width)
- Various custom cellular configurations of specialty shapes

The Levolor logo is printed on a sticker on the bottom rail. Manufacturing information, including the date of manufacture, is printed on a sticker on the head rail. Only units manufactured between 12/15/2018 and 04/30/2019 are included in the recall.

Problem: The pull cords are joined by a non-breakaway cord connector, which poses a strangulation hazard for small children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled shades and contact Levolor for a free repair kit. Levolor is contacting purchasers directly. Consumers can contact Levolor at 800-752-9677 from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, email at recall@levolor.com or online at www.Levolor.com and click on Custom Cellular Recall at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#19-168) K2 Sports LLC, of Seattle, Wash., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 2,700 VO2 S inline skates. This recall involves the following K2 Sports skate models. K2 is printed on the toe and wheels of the skates and the model name is printed on the label found on the tongue of the skate as well as the Velcro ankle strap. The Item Number can be found on the product ID sticker on the skate packaging and is the first ten numbers of the thirteen digit product code (PROD CODE).

Problem: The skate axle can become loose or a portion of the axle can sheer off during use resulting in a wheel separating from the skate's frame, posing a fall hazard.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled skates and contact K2 Sports or the store where purchased to return the skates for a free repair. K2 Sports is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can contact K2 Sports toll-free at 866-734-5746 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, email k2vo2s@k2sports.com or online at www.k2skates.com and click on "Safety Alert Regarding the VO2 S Skate" for more information.

Release Number: (#19-174) Stokke LLC, of Stamford, Conn., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 5,400 Stokke® Steps™ Bouncers. This recall includes Stokke Steps Bouncers. The bouncers are a part of Stokke Steps all-in-one modular seating system and can be used in combination with the Stokke Steps Chair from birth up to the age of about six months. The Stokke Steps Bouncers have a plastic arm and fabric seat and measure about 31 inches by 25 inches by 21 inches. Stokke is printed on the care label and the law tag on the bottom of the recalled bouncers. Only Stokke Steps Bouncers with one of the following item numbers and with a serial number found at <https://reclamations.stokke.com/stepsbouncer> are included in this recall. The item and serial numbers are printed on the tracking label found underneath the bouncer seat plastic frame.

Problem: The Stokke Steps Bouncer can detach from the Stokke Steps Chair, posing a fall hazard to the child in the Bouncer.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the Stokke Steps Bouncer in combination with the Stokke Steps Chair and contact Stokke for a free repair kit. Visit <https://reclamations.stokke.com/stepsbouncer> to check if the bouncer is included in the recall. Once confirmed, consumers should register on the site to receive repair instructions. Consumers can continue to use the Stokke Steps Bouncers and the Stokke Steps Chairs separately. Consumers can contact Stokke by email at info-usa@stokke.com, toll-free at 877-978-6553 Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. ET or visit www.stokke.com and click on the link for product recalls for more information.

Release Number: (#19-175) Cycling Sports Group Inc., of Wilton, Conn., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 9,700 2013 through 2016 Cannondale CAADX cyclocross bicycles. This recall involves model year 2013 through 2016 Cannondale CAADX Cyclocross bicycles equipped with disc brakes. Cyclocross racing combines both off-road and on-road cycling. The bicycles were sold in a variety of colors and configurations. Consumers should inspect their bicycle to determine if it is affected by this recall by confirming:

- (1) The bicycle has a prominent CAADX marking on the top tube or other location.
 - (2) The bicycle has disc brakes.
 - (3) The inside of the fork leg has a large "ULTRAX" marking.
 - (4) The cable running to the front disc brake is outside of the fork, as opposed to inside the fork.
- For assistance determining if a bicycle is affected, consumers should bring it to a Cannondale authorized dealer.

Problem: The fork can break, posing a fall hazard with the risk of death and serious injury.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bicycle and take it to the nearest authorized Cannondale dealer for a free repair. Cannondale dealers will replace, free of cost, the bicycle's fork with a full carbon fiber replacement fork. Consumers can contact a local Cannondale authorized dealer or Cycling Sports Group at 844-370-1536 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, by email at custserve@cyclingsportsgroup.com or online at www.cannondale.com and click on Recalls & Notices at the top of the page.

Release Number: (#19-176) H&M Hennes & Mauritz L.P., of New York, N.Y., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 9,000 children's pajamas. This recall involves two styles of children's 100 percent cotton knit, long-sleeve top and pant pajama sets. The pajamas were sold in sizes 2 through 10.

The first style was sold as a set of two pajamas. The recalled tops from this set include: a pink long-sleeve top with a dog's face screen-printed onto the front, and two extended 3D fabricated ears. The gray long-sleeve top includes a pink bow trim located at the neckline, a pink heart screen-printed on the left chest and is paired with long pants (pink and polka dot print.) Both the top with the dog's face and the gray top with the pink bow are being recalled. The product code for this pajama set is 0494860.

The second style was sold as a single set. The recalled top is a white long-sleeve top with a cat's face screen-printed on the front with two extended 3D fabricated ears, paired with long white polka dot pants. Only the top is included in this recall. The product code for this pajama set is 0537645.

The seven-digit product (P/N) number is located on the wash care label inside the garment.

Problem: The children's pajama sets fail to meet the flammability standard for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled pajama tops and contact H&M for a full refund, plus a $20 gift card. Consumers can contact H&M toll-free at 855-466-7467 from 7 a.m. to 12 a.m. CT any day of the week or online at www.hm.com and click on Legal & Privacy and then Recalled Items for more information.

Release Number: (#19-763) Britax Child Safety Inc., of Fort Mill, S.C., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 200 modified thru-bolt axles for use with BOB Jogging Strollers distributed through the BOB Information Campaign from January 10, 2019 to April 26, 2019. This recall involves the modified thru-bolt axle provided by Britax free of charge as one of the available incentives to eligible consumers in connection with the BOB Information Campaign announced on January 10, 2019. The model number of the modified thru-bolt axle is S11393700 and it was manufactured for use with BOB Jogging Strollers made between 1/1/2009 to 9/30/2015.

Problem: The modified thru-bolt on the front wheel can fracture, allowing the wheel to detach from the stroller, posing fall and injury hazards to children in the stroller and adults operating the stroller.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the modified thru-bolt axle installed on the front wheel of their BOB jogging stroller. Britax is contacting consumers directly who received the modified thru-bolt axles and providing them with a free replacement thru-bolt axle. Those consumers may also contact Britax for a free replacement thru-bolt axle. Consumers who have participated in the BOB Information Campaign, and have already been contacted by Britax, will automatically receive a replacement thru-bolt. Consumers can contact Britax toll-free at 888-427-4829 from 9 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. ET Monday through Thursday, or between 9 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. ET on Friday or via email at UScustomerservice@britax.com.
