November 2019 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children's Safety Advocates:

In October 2019, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued a total of 7 recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children's product safety recalls for the past month.

If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#20-002) E & E Co. Ltd., dba JLA Home, of Fremont, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,800 INK+IVY Renu three-drawer dressers. This recall involves the INK+IVY Renu dressers made from multi-colored pine wood. The dressers have three drawers and metal legs. Each is about 36 inches tall and weighs about 73 pounds. The INK+IVY brand name can be found on a hanging tag attached to a dresser drawer. Stickers on the back of each recalled dresser display “E&E CO., LTD” the date of manufacture, PO numbers and the words “MADE IN VIETNAM.”

Problem: The recalled dressers are unstable if they are not anchored to the wall, posing serious tip-over and entrapment hazards that can result in death or injuries to children. The dressers do not comply with the performance requirements of the U.S. voluntary industry standard (ASTM 2057-17).

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled dressers unless properly anchored to the wall and place them in an area that children cannot access. Contact E&E for a full refund with free dresser pick-up or a free tip-over restraint kit and a one-time free in-home installation of the kit. Consumers can also choose to receive a pre-paid packaging label to ship their recalled dresser back to E&E for a full refund check or a $400 Designerliving.com store credit. Consumers can contact E&E toll-free at 844-701-5979 from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. PT Monday through Friday or online at www.ee1994.com and click on “Recall” for more information.

Release Number: (#20-003) Ridgewood Industries Inc., of Canada, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1 million Belmont four-drawer dressers. This recall includes Belmont four-drawer dressers with plastic drawer glides. The recalled dressers were sold in two sizes and four colors, each with its own model number, which can be found on the instruction manual that came with each.

Problem: The recalled dressers are unstable and can tip over if not anchored to the wall, posing serious tip-over and entrapment hazards that can result in death or injuries to children. Additionally, those models of dressers over 30 inches tall do not comply with the performance requirements of the U.S. voluntary industry standard (ASTM F2057-14).

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using any recalled dresser that is not properly anchored to a wall and place them in an area that children cannot access. Contact Ridgewood to receive a free anchoring kit, including a wall anchor strap. Consumers can request a one-time, free in-home installation of the wall anchor strap. Consumers can contact Ridgewood toll-free at 888-222-7460 Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. CT, or visit www.ameriwood.com and click on “Support” for more information.

Release Number: (#20-008) IKEA Supply AG, of Switzerland, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 7,000 MATVRA infant bibs. This recall involves the MATVRÅ bibs for infants sold in a two pack with one blue and one red bib with a snap at the back of the neck. The blue bib has a green seam along the outside with white polka dots. The red bib has a yellow seam along the outside with white polka dots. The blue bib has a yellow seam along the outside with white polka dots. The red bib has a yellow seam along the outside with white polka dots. MATVRA, IKEA and the IKEA logo are printed on a white tag on the back of the bib.

Problem: The snap on the bibs can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bibs and return them to any IKEA store for a full refund. Consumers can contact IKEA toll-free at 888-966-4532 anytime or online at www.ikea-usa.com and click on Product Recalls at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#20-704) Soft Play LLC, of Huntersville, N.C., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 200 spider climb playground climbers. This recall involved Spider Climb enclosed vertical rope and plastic platform playground climbers installed in approximately 200 McDonald's Restaurant Play Places. The climbers are designed with plastic platforms, ropes, cables and chains for children to scale inside a multi-level enclosed tower assembly.

Problem: The climbing level platforms were designed too far apart, posing a fall hazard to children who can fall climbing from one level to the next.

What to do: Soft Play has contacted all purchasers directly and installed all additional platforms free of charge to reduce the distance between platforms. Consumers can contact Soft Play collect at 704-948-3442 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, or online at www.softplay.com and click on "Recall Alert" for more information.
