PART II. PURPOSE AND RATIONALE FOR AEA MODIFICATION⁴

1. Re-state the specific goals of the existing, designated AEA for

a. preservation of agricultural land use:

1. Assess natural resource quality and quantity and implement methods to increase their function and usability in the economy and environment.
2. Provide farmers with technical assistance to meet compliance with soil and water conservation standards to conserve environmental resources for future use and enjoyment.
3. Implement strategies to minimize rural residential and rural agricultural user conflicts by

- Engage in activities within the AEA

⁴ DATCP will evaluate petitions under s. 91.86, Wis. Stats., and will consider information provided in response to the following questions.

addressing development in urban fringe areas.

4. Promote agricultural economic development.

5. Conserve soil and water resources to maintain productive and efficient use of agricultural lands and the associated aesthetics of countryside open space views.

6. Maintain natural resources for use by existing and expanding agricultural enterprises.

7. Create the largest contiguous block of working lands for agriculture, forestry, wildlife and other working land use.

b. agricultural development:

1. Preserve and promote the agricultural economy and its social, cultural, and economic heritage.

2. Retain and enhance existing agricultural-based businesses, the jobs associated with those agri-businesses and the other local businesses patronized by these employees.

3. Ensure agricultural production capacity and protect food security by supporting farmscapes and foodsheds.

4. Provide strategies to minimize scattered rural residential development in order to minimize non-farm residential and farm user conflicts.

5. Develop joint marketing opportunities for local food products.

6. Pursue new technologies that provide economic benefits to agricultural producers to efficiently utilize the economies of scale created by large blocks of contiguous farmland.

7. Maintain and create economic certainty for farms and agri-businesses desiring to build additional economic capacity through reinvesting in their businesses and the local economy.

2. Add additional, specific goals if applicable, for

a. preservation of agricultural land use:

1. Marathon County Strategic Plan: The Marathon County Strategic Plan 2012-2017 identifies the following related core strategies and objectives:

a) Continued expansion of the Heart of America's Dairyland is part of this strategy.

b) Provide leadership and services focusing on improving land use and resource planning. This will assure the orderly development of retail and manufacturing business, agriculture/agribusiness, and residential growth while retaining the rural character of Marathon County.

c) Develop comprehensive planning and zoning ordinances that provide towns with so much value that in the future 100% request participation in county planning and zoning.

d) Improve water quality and residential, commercial, and industrial waste management resulting in 100% of all households, businesses, and industry sites meeting water quality standards.

e) Inventory our water resources, determine where we have adequate supplies and encourage development in those areas.

2) Clark County Land and Water Resource Management Plan 2011-2016 (LWRMP) identifies farmland preservation as a high conservation priority. The strategy to implement this activity is by coordinating a successful Farmland Preservation Program. Since the original inception of the Heart of America's Dairyland AEA, more than 160 Farmland Preservation Agreements have been voluntarily signed by eligible farms. These agreements will ensure that for the next 15 years, approximately 35,000 acres or about 57% of the Clark County portion of the AEA will proudly remain in working condition for local agri-processors of milk, meat, grain, and fiber.

Farmland preservation zoning is not mentioned in the Clark County LWRMP; however many towns, with and without current zoning, are looking into this option as a way to maintain the agricultural lifestyle and landscape preferred by the majority of their residents. DATCP has assisted Clark County towns with this ongoing effort.

b. agricultural development:

1) Marathon County Strategic Plan: The Marathon County Strategic Plan 2012-2017 identifies the following related core strategies and objectives.

a) Provide leadership for greater cooperation and collaboration among state, regional, and local public and private entities.

b) Foster, and when appropriate, provide services which facilitate economic development and result in the creation of private sector jobs.

c) Ensure the continued protection of productive agriculture land by fostering the development of Agricultural Enterprise Areas.

d) Develop infrastructure policies that reflect the needs of agriculture and industry within design and fiscal limitations.

2) Clark County Land and Water Resource Management Plan 2011-2016 (LWRMP) identifies agricultural economic development as a high conservation priority. Good long-term economic decisions produce positive environmental benefits for natural resources. A productive economy relies on the strength of its natural resources for the production of goods and services (jobs). The strategy to implement these activities is through the coordination of a successful Wisconsin Environmental Conservation Assistance Network (WECAN). This local network provides technical assistance and, in some cases, reinvestment funding (tax credits, grants and other cost-share, etc.) to agricultural enterprises to maintain and expand existing operations in an economically and environmentally sound manner. More than $2,500,000 in funding has been reinvested in local farms over the past eight years. These farms hire local services providers and buy local goods thereby redistributing these funds throughout the local economy. Clark County also provides the same level of technical assistance to new enterprises and encourages agricultural entrepreneurship and creativity as evidenced by the increasing amount of unique farming enterprises such as vermicompost farms and non-traditional dairy farms milking goats and sheep.

3. Explain the reason for the proposed modification, and the proposed boundary, and describe how the modification is consistent with the existing designated AEA.

Clark County established the initial Heart of America's Dairyland Agricultural Enterprise Area in 2011. Western Marathon County has a similar culture, agricultural economy, and landscape. Therefore, the towns of Brighton, Hull, Frankfort, Holton and Johnson in Marathon County petitioned for extension of the Heart of America's Dairyland into the towns in 2012 and 2013. Now the Marathon County towns of Bern, Eau Pleine, and McMillan are requesting to be added into the Heart of America's Dairyland. The original Clark County towns are requesting to add land and the towns of Weston and York that was not included in the original petition. The intent is to continue to expand the AEA in order to encompass the dairy industry in central Wisconsin.

In Clark County, 88 landowners signed "landowner signature pages" demonstrating their support for the expansion of the Heart of America's Dairyland AEA. These petitioners collectively represented 16,747 acres or 71% of the total proposed Clark County acreage. Interestingly enough, many landowners who are not eligible to participate in the Farmland Preservation Program, due to their properties being excluded under the 1982 Clark County Farmland Preservation Plan, pledged their support of the AEA expansion as evidenced by their signature on these "landowner signature pages". Clearly, this was not a case of "sour grapes" where landowners unduly scrutinized an opportunity if it was of no immediate benefit to them. These landowners represent the epitome of what makes up a community interested in maintaining a rural way of life by preserving farmland, farms, and farm service providers.

Additionally, the expansion of the HOAD was planned in the original application requesting the establishment of the AEA. Page 5, under "Future Activities":

1. Develop and maintain a strong economically viable agricultural infrastructure
 2. Extend the AEA boundary into surrounding towns and counties to assist with creating the largest contiguous acreage of farmland preservation in the State of Wisconsin.
 3. Assist other landowners, towns, and counties with developing farmland preservation strategies through the use of agricultural enterprise areas.

4. Describe any progress made in the existing designated AEA with respect to goals stated in prior petitions.

Coreen:

I am writing on behalf of the UW-Madison Marshfield Agricultural Research Station to support the development and growth of the Heart of America's Dairyland (HOAD) Agricultural Enterprise Area (AEA). The intent of the AEA is to provide economic, land use, and conservation support to our area's farmland owners, agricultural producers and agricultural business. Our research station's mission is to facilitate and conduct research and outreach activities that support agricultural development and natural resource conservation on the difficult-to-manage soils of north central and northern Wisconsin. Our common work to support agriculture is critical for the future of agriculture in western Marathon County and eastern Clark.

Just a few years ago the UW-Madison Agricultural Research Station located their livestock facilities in the northern parts of the Town of McMillan to be part of, and support, this important dairy region of the state. We ask that the DATCP support the 2014 AEA petition application to include the designated farmland and woodland within the Towns of Bern and Eau Pleine in the HOAD AEA.

Thank You,

I am writing on behalf of Mullins Cheese, Inc. to support the development and growth of the Heart of America's Dairyland (HOAD) Agricultural Enterprise Area (AEA). The intent of the AEA is to provide economic, land use, and conservation support to our area's farmland owners, agricultural producers and agricultural business.

Established in 1970, Mullins cheese is proud to be 100% American owned and operated. Our family has been producing quality cheese for over 80 years across the state of Wisconsin. We're now in our 4th generation of cheese makers. The company currently makes nine semi-loads or roughly 360,000 pounds of cheese a day. We rely on a strong dairy industry in the AEA region to support our business, and the local producers and businesses.

We ask that the DATCP support the 2014 AEA petition application to include the designated farmland and woodland within the Towns of Bern and Eau Pleine.

Dear Coreen,

The Dairy Grazing Apprenticeship (DGA) is dedicated to training our next generation of farmers and creating pathways to new farm ownership. The DGA is in favor of efforts to protect our farmland and natural resources. The expansion of the Agricultural Enterprise Areas in Marathon County will do just that.

The DGA is a first in the Nation fully accredited new farmer training program that is housed in our States Department of Workforce Development. The innovative program got started right here in Marathon County with one goal of bringing new start up dairies to our area. We need to protect our farmland in order to be successful with this goal.

Dear: Town of Weston Chairman Jack Kluckhohn

Thank you for informing me about your local landowner's petition to cooperate with the Heart of America's Dairyland Agricultural Enterprise Area. I am familiar with the economic and environmental goals of the Wisconsin Working Lands Initiative program.

Clark County is ideally suited for farmland preservation given the area's past, present, and future reliance on agricultural preservation and expansion. The AEA designation will provide important income tax relief to local participating landowners and assist in ensuring the availability of productive working land for future generations, and maintain and expand the client base for many local agri-businesses.

I support the Heart of America's Dairyland Agricultural Enterprise Area because agriculture is vital to not only Wisconsin's economy, but also Clark County's. Clark County's local economy is also heavily dependent upon the success of agriculture, as many local farmers and business owners rely on the production of agricultural commodities to generate income and keep people working.

Furthermore, farmers continue to be the strongest supporters of land stewardship practices and this AEA will continue to promote environmental stewardship through the adoption of soil and water conservation practices. Truly, a strong agricultural economy must have a strong environmental ethic, for it is the land which ultimately produces the food that farmers provide to their neighbors.

I believe this application should be thoughtfully considered in order for the Heart of America's Dairyland to continue to be a leader in agriculture.

Sincerely,
