

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection
Division of Animal Health

AVIAN INFLUENZA INFORMATION SHEET

Poultry Industry in Wisconsin

FAST FACTS:

- 19,173 registered poultry premises
- About 5.4 million layers (2013)
- Produced 1.48 billion eggs in 2013, or 123 million dozen, worth $112 million
 - Enough to supply every person in Wisconsin with 21 dozen eggs each year
- Produced 53.1 million broilers in 2013, worth $135 million
- More than 4.4 million turkeys and pullets for laying flock replacement (2012 Census of Agriculture)
- Consistently rank #10 for turkeys, #18-19 for broiler production in the nation and #17-18 for egg production

For more information about all aspects of avian influenza, visit datcp.wi.gov.

If you find a sick or dead bird, don't touch it, report it.

Domestic birds: Wisconsin DATCP—Division of Animal Health
1-800-572-8981

Wild birds: Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources
1-800-433-1610

