

INVESTMENT SCAMMERS WANT YOUR TRUST – AND YOUR MONEY

- Scammers pretend to be trustworthy people like romantic partners or investment coaches.
- They trick people into “investing” with them, but they secretly control the portfolio.
- The scammer disappears when the person stops investing or runs out of money.

Scan to learn more
from DATCP's Bureau of Consumer Protection.

REPORT SCAMS AND LEARN MORE FROM THE BUREAU OF CONSUMER PROTECTION.

Visit datcp.wi.gov or call (800) 422-7128

Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP)