

MILITARY CONSUMER PROTECTION

- Scammers target active duty personnel, veterans, retirees, and their families due to their unique career, living conditions, lifestyle, and community.
- Be cautious of scammers impersonating government agencies, military officials, veteran charities, housing providers, job recruiters, and friends.
- Military consumers can place security freezes and fraud alerts on their credit as a defense against identity theft.

Scan to learn more
from DATCP's Bureau of Consumer Protection.

LEARN MORE FROM THE BUREAU OF CONSUMER PROTECTION.

Visit datcp.wi.gov or call (800) 422-7128

Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP)