

Wisconsin Farm Center Farmer Mental Health Activities Fiscal Year 2023 Report

Program Overview:

DATCP's farmer mental health programming, administered through the Wisconsin Farm Center, aims to increase access to mental health resources for farmers and their families. These efforts were funded as part of Governor Tony Evers' 2021-23 biennial budget.

Updated: June 30, 2023

Counseling Vouchers

255

Vouchers Issued
All-time High

217

Vouchers Redeemed
All-time High

35

Unique Clients Redeeming
3rd All-time High

85%

Estimated Voucher Redemption Rate
All-time High

Counseling Vouchers FY2019-2023

24/7 Wellness Helpline

271 calls for immediate support
By using the 24/7 Farmer Wellness Helpline farmers and their family members can reach out any time, any day for assistance.

Tele-Counseling

73
Sessions

→ 18 unique clients
→ 23% by phone
→ 77% online

Reasons for Tele-Counseling

Podcast

7
New Episodes

> 1,225
New Downloads

Listen and download at
<https://datcp.buzzsprout.com>

Online Support Groups

Bringing farmers together to share ideas, provide encouragement, and build community.

- Participation up over 40% vs. FY22
- 18 sessions held from July '21 – June '22
- 124 total attendees

For more information:

<https://FarmCenter.wi.gov>

