- 1. If I was named in a trial but not convicted, do I need to report or submit anything?
 - Send in a court document stating either that the charges were dismissed or you were acquitted.
 - If you entered into a deferred prosecution agreement, submit a copy of the agreement and verification that you have complied with all terms and conditions of the agreement.
- 2. If the conviction was expunged, do I need to report or submit anything?
 - Usually, the court expunges a conviction after compliance with all sentences of the conviction. Technically, there is a conviction at one point in time; therefore, you need to disclose the conviction and provide all documents required for this form. Also, include a court document stating the conviction was expunged.
- 3. What do I do if records are no longer available due to the length of time passed since the conviction?
 - Include a personal statement describing each offense listed on this form along with an explanation of the penalties imposed and verification that you completed all requirements. State that the records are no longer available in your personal statement and include a letter from the records custodian confirming the unavailability of the records.
- 4. Do I need to report or submit anything about minor traffic violations, i.e. a speeding ticket?
 - There is no need to disclose most traffic violations, however, any traffic violation that involves alcohol (including convictions for operating while intoxicated) or other drug use, should be disclosed.
- 5. How can I find out if I am excluded from getting a license due to a conviction?
 - Please refer to the statutes and rules governing Veterinary or Veterinary Technician practice to determine whether your conviction records are substantially related to the practice of the profession.
 - We are unable to determine prior to full review whether an applicant will or will not be issued a license based on the conviction records as it is determined on a case-by-case basis.
- 6. How long does it take to review these documents?
 - The time period for conviction review varies depending on whether all information is complete; all documentation is received, whether it needs to be reviewed by the board, etc.
- 7. What are certified court records and where do I get them?
 - These are records certified as true and correct by the Office of the Clerk of Courts and may include judgment of conviction, police report/incident report/criminal complaint, court-ordered assessment report, etc.
 - Records may be obtained from the Office of the Clerk of Courts in the county in which your case was heard or relevant police department.
- 8. If I was underage at the time of the offense, do I need to report or submit anything?
 - Report the conviction and submit all court documents and verification that you have complied with all requirements. Any conviction received while underage involving alcohol (including convictions for operating while intoxicated) or other drug use must be disclosed.
- 9. What needs to be in the personal statement?
 - A personal statement should describe the events that led to each offense and conviction listed on this form along with an explanation of the penalties imposed and verification that you completed all requirements. Be sure to answer the questions: “who,” “what,” “when,” “where,” “how,” and “why.” You might also include any information about changes in your life, including past and current treatment programs, that you would like the Veterinary Board to consider during the review.
- 10. Do I need to hire a lawyer?
 - It is your decision as to whether you need to hire an attorney. If you would like a legal opinion, you might want to hire a private attorney, as the legal department of DATCP does not provide legal advice to applicants.
