KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#21-759) TBD Liquids LLC, of Santa Rosa, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,000 The Best Damn Liquids branded liquid nicotine. This recall involves “The Best Damn Liquids” branded liquid nicotine products in all flavors packaged in clear plastic bottles in 120 mL and 240 mL sizes with a continuously threaded closure.

Problem: Liquid nicotine must be in special packaging as required by the Child Nicotine Poisoning Prevention Act (CNPPA). The packaging of the products is not child-resistant, posing a risk of poisoning if the contents are swallowed or touched by young children. Liquid nicotine is toxic if ingested or absorbed through the skin or eyes.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled products, store them out of the reach of children and contact TBD Liquids for a full refund in the form of a gift card or free replacement. TBD Liquids is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can contact TBD Liquids at 800-823-0813 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. PT Monday through Friday, or online at www.tbdlíquids.com/recall or www.tbdlíquids.com and click on “Recall Notice” at the bottom for more information.

Release Number: (#21-160) One Twenty Clothing Company US LLC, of Dallas, Texas, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 140 children’s robes. This recall involves Sovereign Athletic-branded children’s robes in navy. The long-sleeved robes have two front pockets and two side seam belt loops with a matching belt. They are made of 100% polyester and were sold in sizes 4 through 16. “Sovereign Athletic,” the size of the garment, and “Made in China” are printed on the sewn-in neck label. The sewn-in label at the side seam has the fabric product unit number FPU#W19-FP17, the garment product unit number GPU#W19-GP15, and the production date Jul-19.

Problem: The children’s robes fail to meet the federal flammability standards for children’s sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled garments and contact One Twenty Clothing Company US LLC for instructions on returning the garments with free shipping to receive a full refund. Consumers can contact One Twenty Clothing Company US LLC toll-free at 888-764-7763 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. CT Monday through Friday, email at product.recall@candypinkgirls.com, or online at www.candypinkgirls.com and click on “Safety Recall” at the bottom of the page for more information on how to receive a refund.

Release Number: (#21-761) Canyon Furniture Company, of Seffner, Fla., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,200 Creekside kids' five-drawer chests. This recall involves Creekside Kids Five-Drawer Chests, sold in charcoal and chestnut colors. The Creekside Chests measure about 43.5 inches tall, 31.5 inches wide and 18 inches deep. "Canyon Furniture Co," SKU number 34595035 (charcoal) or 34495045 (chestnut), and the manufacture date ("Prod. Date") - in month/day/year format (MM/DD/YY) - are printed on a label on the back of unit. The recalled chests were manufactured between April 2020 and March 2021.

Problem: The recalled chests are unstable if they are not anchored to the wall, posing tip-over and entrapment hazards that can result in death or serious injuries to children. The chests do not comply with the performance requirements of the voluntary industry standard ASTM F2057-19.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled chests and contact Rooms To Go for a free repair, replacement, or a full refund of the purchase price in the form of a Rooms To Go store credit, including free pick-up of the chest. Rooms To Go is contacting all known purchasers directly. Consumers can contact Rooms To Go toll-free at 855-688-0919 Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. ET, email at productcare@roomstogo.com, or online at www.roomstogo.com and click on "Customer Service" at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#21-163) Academy Ltd., d/b/a Academy Sports + Outdoors, of Katy, Texas, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 3,860 Ozone 500® Girls' and Boys' Elevate 24-Inch Bicycles. This recall involves the Ozone 500 Girls' and Boys' Elevate 24-Inch Bicycles. "Ozone 500" is printed on the frame. The girls' bicycle frame is fuchsia with black script and the boys' bicycle frame is black with red script.

Problem: The rear shock spring on the bicycles can become stuck, creating a pinch point between the spring and the seat, posing a risk of injury, or causing the bicycles to stop unexpectedly, posing a fall hazard to the rider.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bicycles and bring them to any Academy Sports + Outdoors store for a free repair or a full refund. Consumers can also contact Academy Sports + Outdoors for a replacement shock and repair instructions or to receive a pre-paid shipping label to return the bicycle for a full refund. Consumers can contact Academy Sports + Outdoors toll-free at 888-922-2336 from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. CT daily, email at customerservice@academy.com, or online at www.academy.com and click on "Product Recalls" at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#21-770) Specialized Bicycle Components Inc., of Morgan Hill, Calif., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 2,500 specialized 1st generation Turbo Levo and Kenevo electric mountain bike battery packs. This recall involves Specialized 1st generation 2016-2018 model year Turbo Levo FSR, 2018-2021 model year Turbo Levo HT, and 2018-2019 model year Turbo Kenevo FSR electric mountain bikes with Specialized M1 battery packs that came as original equipment on the bikes, or Specialized M1 battery packs that were sold as aftermarket equipment for use with the bikes. Turbo Levo, Turbo Levo HT, or Turbo Kenevo FSR are printed on the bicycle's top tube. The following Manufacture Part Numbers (P/N) and Made Dates are printed on a label on the recalled batteries. The battery pack must be removed from the bicycle using a 6mm Allen key in order to read the label. Visit www.specialized.com/safety-notice for more information on how to remove the battery pack and determine if it is included in this recall.

Problem: Water can penetrate the seal around the LED control pad on the bicycle's lithium-ion battery pack and cause the battery to short circuit, posing fire and burn hazards.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled electric mountain bikes and contact Specialized Bicycle for a free repair. Specialized is contacting purchasers directly about the recall. Consumers should not charge the recalled battery pack or expose it to wet conditions until it has been repaired by an authorized Specialized retailer. Consumers can contact Specialized Bicycle Components at 800-772-4423 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. MT Monday through Friday, email ridercare@specialized.com, or online at www.specialized.com and click on "Safety Notices" or contact an authorized Specialized retailer for more information.
